

Frank's Mr. Plumber Serving Grand Island and WNY since 1985

Frank DiMaria is the proud owner and driving force behind Frank's Mr. Plumber. With over two decades of hands-on experience in the plumbing industry, Frank has established himself as a knowledgeable and reliable expert who is deeply passionate about his craft.

Frank's dedication to excellence, attention to detail, and genuine care for his customers have made our business a trusted name in the area. Whether it's a routine maintenance, complex installations, or repairs, Frank ensures every job meets the highest standard.

What makes Frank's Mr. Plumber stand out isn't just the technical expertise; it's the personal touch Frank brings to every project. His genuine care for his customers is evident in the long-lasting relationships he's built, transforming first-time clients into loyal supporters who trust him not only for their plumbing needs but also as a trusted advisor.

In addition to his plumbing work, Frank is a committed and active community member. He frequently engages in local events and charitable efforts. Whether organizing fundraisers, volunteering at events, or providing his know-how to local projects, Frank takes pride in contributing to the well-being of others. His involvement is more than just showing up—he actively works to make a meaningful impact. This dedication has earned him both the respect of his neighbors and a strong connection to the community he serves.

Outside of work, Frank is a devoted family man, cherishing the time he spends with his grandchildren. His love for problem-solving extends into his hobbies as well, such as restoring vintage cars and tackling various DIY projects. These interests mirror his professional approach—precision, care, and a deep sense of satisfaction in getting things just right.

At Frank's Mr. Plumber, customers receive more than just a service—they gain a partner who genuinely cares about their needs and is committed to delivering lasting solutions with integrity and expertise.
