

Traffic cut to one lane on North Island spans

Published: October 20, 2011, 12:00 AM

Updated: October 20, 2011, 6:45 AM

Northbound traffic on the Niagara Thruway at the North Grand Island bridges will be reduced to one lane Saturday morning because of bridge maintenance work, according to the state Department of Transportation.

The lane restriction from Long Road on Grand Island to Buffalo Avenue in Niagara Falls will be in effect from 4 to 11 a. m. Saturday, the department said.